Art Unit: 2157

1. The amendment filed 5/4/2006 has been entered and considered by the examiner.
2. Claims 6-8, 10, 16-18, 20, 26-28, and 30 are presenting for examination.
3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

4. Claims 6-8, 10, 16-18, 20, 26-28, and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by the article of “Omnisky licenses handspring blazer browser technology for faster web browsing of more websites”.

5. As to claims 6-8, the article teaches a method for automatically transferring information (such as maps and/or address) from a web site displayed on a handheld internet appliance into a local database in the appliance, the method comprising:

determining the information (map or address) to be transferred with a web site application program interface , transferring the information from the web site, saving the information into a local application [(address book application), claim 7)], and launching a second web site to find driving directions corresponding to the saved address (claim 8), see the article, lines 34-41.

Therefore, it can be seen from paragraphs 5-6 that the article anticipates claims 6-8, 10, 16-18, 20, 26-28, and 30.
